

We Will Still Remember

words and music by Tim Brace slowly, quietly, with great feeling take time between phrases ♩ = 60 sop

Lord, we ga - ther in your name, si - lence in our hearts.

alt
Lord, we ga - ther in your name, si - lence in our hearts.

men
Lord, we ga - ther in your name, si - lence in our hearts.

5
As we drink of this, your love help us to re - mem - ber.

As we drink of this, your love help us to re - mem - ber.

As we drink of this, your love help us to re - mem - ber.

9
You have gi - ven us your life, you are in our hearts,

You have gi - ven us your life, you are in our hearts,

You have gi - ven us your life, you are in our hearts,

13

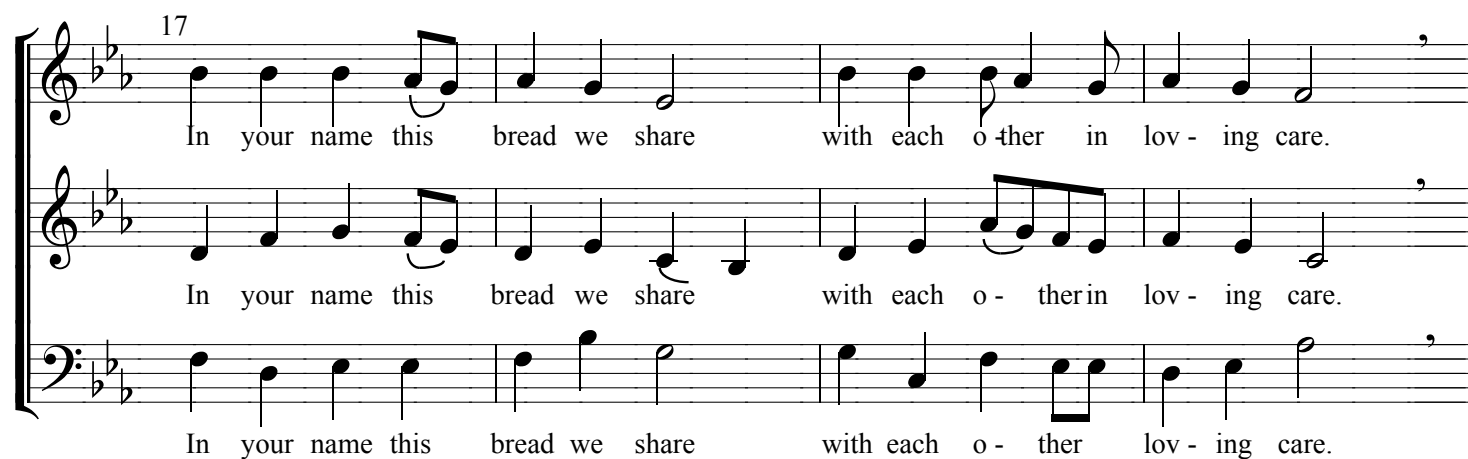

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

17

In your name this bread we share with each o - ther in lov - ing care.

In your name this bread we share with each o - ther in lov - ing care.

In your name this bread we share with each o - ther lov - ing care.

21

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

quieter still

25

Lord, we ga - ther in your name, si - lence in our hearts.

29

As we drink of this, your love help us to re - mem - ber.

33

In your name this bread we share with each o - ther in lov - ing care.

37

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

we will brush a - way the tears, we will still re - mem - ber.

A song for Maundy Thursday, and for general communion use.

Written for the Hyde Park United Methodist Church adult choir, Austin, Texas, March 1999.